

Regulations of the event Hanukkah and the Power of Words—a family workshop (hereinafter: "Regulations")

1. The event is of an educational and artistic nature.
2. The event takes place on December 14, 2025 from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. The event is organized by the POLIN Museum of the History of Polish Jews, ul. Anielewicza 6, 00-157 Warsaw, tel. 22 471 03 01, www.polin.pl; e-mail: polin@polin.pl
3. The condition for using the event is to read and comply with the Regulations below. Failure to comply with the Regulations below may result in calling the appropriate security services to remove the user of the event or taking other actions to stop violations of the Regulations.
4. Entering the area where the event takes place is tantamount to accepting the Regulations. Acceptance of the Regulations is necessary to use the event.
5. The event is open to the public and its use is free of charge. Minors may use the event only in the presence of an adult guardian, who is also responsible for damages and accidents caused by them and by minors under their care.
6. The event consists of the following activities (hereinafter: "events"): family game, entertainment at the "King Matt's" Family Education Area, Hanukkah photo booth, visiting the permanent exhibition with an audio guide.
7. It is prohibited for people under the influence of alcohol, narcotics or other substances with a similar effect to be present at the event. It is also prohibited to consume alcoholic beverages, take narcotics or other substances with a similar effect at the event.
8. There is a total ban on smoking, bringing any dangerous materials or objects, in particular weapons, firecrackers, sparklers, flares, knives and using open fire at the event.
9. There is a total ban on littering and leaving leftovers of food or drink on the event grounds.

10. We inform you that during the event, photos will be taken and videos will be recorded, which will be published on the Museum's social media (including Facebook, Instagram), on the Museum's websites, for promotional purposes of the Museum and in connection with the implementation of statutory obligations, i.e. supporting and conducting artistic activities and promoting culture.
11. Any obscene behavior, using offensive vocabulary, proclaiming and displaying slogans with obscene, vulgar, racist or other content violating or potentially violating personal rights and generally applicable legal regulations, inciting conflict on national, religious or social grounds, as well as any behavior that violates social and moral norms is prohibited.
12. Damaging, destroying or stealing elements present on the event grounds is prohibited.
13. The Organizer's security services and the city security services have the right to remove from the event area people who violate the provisions of the Regulations or to take other appropriate actions aimed at stopping violations of the provisions of the Regulations.
14. The event area is constantly monitored. In the event of noticing a threat, people using the event should:
 - immediately notify the security or information services about the threat:

Museum Security 22 471 03 25

Emergency Notification Center 112

City Guard 986

intervention text message 723 986 112

Police 997

Fire Department 998

Emergency Medical Service 999

- obey information orders, announcements issued by the security and information services
- do not obstruct the access of the rescue services.

15. The event regulations are posted on the website www.polin.pl and placed at the information point at the event. The Organizer reserves the right to make changes to the Regulations.