Get creative →

Consider getting a little 'creative' in your ways to educate and commemorate

- Plant daffodils at home or at your school.
- Join a Zoom workshop with POLIN Museum.
- Ask to have a workshop with POLIN on the topic of the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising.
- Hold events for making paper daffodils or planting daffodils at your school, synagogue, church, or organization.
- Be one of our online ambassadors in your community. Help spread the word about our campaign.

Host a memorial

Consider combining the anniversary with Yom HaShoah events →

Dedicate this year's Yom HaShoah anniversary to the memory of those who fought in the Uprising, and to those who perished in the Holocaust.

Hold a moment of silence, or plan an event in a park →

Gather in your own way with friends and loved ones. Wear the daffodil, and hold an official memorial for the 80th anniversary of the Uprising.

Invite a POLIN Representative →

Contact our office in advance to secure someone from POLIN who could speak online, or in person to your group or community.
